

ELLIOTT J. ALPHER, D. D. S., F.A.G.D.,
F.A.S.C.D., D.A.A.P.M, M.I.C.C.M.O.,
D.A.B.F.E., F.A D.I., FAC.P.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Graduate:

Bachelor of Biology, University of Maryland 1961

Doctor of Dental Surgery, Georgetown Dental School, 1965

Residency:

Providence Hospital, 1965-66 Rotating residency program in general anesthesia, operating room techniques, prosthetics, orthodontics, oral surgery and general practice.

Post Graduate:

Oral Pathology, September 1965- June 1966, Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, Washington, D.C.

Periodontics, February 1966, Walter Reed Army Institute of Research

Implantology, Training and Clinical experience

Teaching: (Past and Present)

Active staff, Providence Hospital Dental Staff, Prosthetics

George Washington Hospital Staff and Hemophiliac Dental/ Medical Team

Assistant Professor Oral Surgery, George Washington University School of Medicine and George Washington University Hospital

TMD- Prince Georges Medical Center

MEMEBERSHIPS

American Dental Association, 1965

District of Columbia Dental Society, 1965

Academy of General Dentistry, 1984

American Academy of Implantology
Academy of Stress and Chronic Disease, 1983

Foundation for the Advancement of Implants and Transplants

International College of Craniomandibular Orthopedics, 1986

Board of Regents, 1992

American Academy of Craniofacial Pain, 1993

American Academy of Sleep Medicine, 2000

FELLOWSHIPS

Academy of Stress and Chronic Disease, 1983

Academy of General Dentistry, 1984

International College of Craniomandibular Orthopedics, 1986

Fellow Academy of Dentistry International, 2000

Fellow Academy of Craniofacial Pain, 2002

MASTERSHIPS

International College of Craniomandibular Orthopedics, Chicago, Illinois, 1994. Thesis; "Fibromyalgia and its Relationship to Temporomandibular Joint Dysfunction and Myofascial Pain Dysfunction Syndromes- A Review".

CERTIFICATIONS

American Academy of Pain Management, October 1995

1999

Certified in Diagnosis and Treatment of Myofascial Disease July 30, Pain.

American Academy of Craniofacial Pain, Certification in Myofascial

apnea.

Certified in the fabrication of airway dilators for snoring and sleep

Certified in Pharmacotherapeutics in craniofacial therapy; (lectures and written examination) by the Academy of Craniofacial Pain, July 25, 2002

DIPLOMATE

American Academy of Pain Management, 1991

American Board of Forensic Dentistry

American Board of Forensic Examiners

FOUNDER

D.C.

1985

Dental Screening Program, U.S. Department of State, Washington,

Metropolitan Area Temporomandibular Joint Myofascial Pain Center,

The Pain Management Institute, 2000

Metropolitan Area Craniofacial Pain Center (Present)

GUEST LECTURER

of Facial Pain.

Prosthetics and Restorative Dentistry, Royal British Dental Society,
Bermuda, 1977, 1979

Kellogg Foundation, University of Kentucky Dental School, 1976-77

American Academy of Pain Management
Prizm Partners

2nd Annual International Scientific Seminar of the American Academy

Buenos Aires, Argentina October 23 and 24, 2003

“A computerized approach to the fabrication of Oral Airway Dilators for Snoring and Sleep Apnea”

CONSULTANT

1979

U.S. Department of State: Dental Department; Medical division, 1969-

Union Labor Life Insurance- Dentistry and TMD/MPD, 1989

Tyson's II Study Club

Grand Rounds, George Washington Medical Center; Sleep Apnea and TMD

Grand Rounds, Georgetown University Medical Center; Sleep Apnea
Appliance Therapy

Howard University College of Dentistry
“Neuromuscular Dentistry” 2004

HOSPITAL AFFILIATIONS

Providence Hospital, Courtesy Staff; TMD, Snoring, Sleep Apnea

George Washington University, School of Medicine, Assistant Professor
Oral Surgery, 1983

Assistant Clinical Professor of Otolaryngology- Georgetown University Hospital and Medical Center, 1998

National Rehabilitation Hospital/Consultant/Dentistry and TMD

Prince George's Hospital/Associate/Division of Dentistry-Department of Surgery

Honorary Professor_ Universidad Catholica De Salta Postgraduate Specialties Studies Program 2003 (October) Buenos Aires, Argentina

PUBLICATIONS

"Hearing Loss Treated by Decompression of the Temporomandibular Joint". Ear, Nose, and Throat Journal, April 1982.

"TMJ Dysfunction Presenting as Neck Pain". Fifth Annual Meeting Cervical Spine Research Society- December, 1987 pg.48.

"Handbook of Nursing Physical Assessment, Nose Mouth and Throat Exam". Pg. 48 1988.

"Oromandibular Dystonia Complicates Treatment" T.M. Diary, Vol. 4 #2, 1992. Pg.26-27

"Oral Appliance Therapy for Obstructive Sleep Apnea Syndrome: Progressive Mandibular Advancement During Polysomnography". American Journal of Pain Management. October 1998. Vol.8 #4; pg. 124-128

MEDICAL ADVISORY BOARD

Fibromyalgia Association of the Greater Washington Area

Integrated Medical Referral Service

Sleep Center; National Rehabilitation Hospital